Re: NOTICE OF INCOMPLETE NON-PROVISIONAL APPLICATION
United States Patent Application No. 10/605,207
Title: Motorcycle Locking Device
Inventor: Craig Graulich

The following transmittal letter is written in response to a notice of an incomplete non-provisional application for the above named application. Please find enclosed a copy of the complete application including the specification (including claims), and drawings. A signed declaration covering the above named items is also included for your review.

Additionally, please find enclosed a petition requesting that the patent application receive the original filing date of September 15, 2003. As disclosed in the petition, the applicant additionally requests a refund of the US $400 petition fee.

As disclosed in the petition, the applicant respectfully submits that the application was filed electronically using the electronic business tools provided by the USPTO. A copy of the electronic filing receipt is enclosed for your review. For whatever reasons, several missing parts for the application were not submitted successfully in the transmission. Apparently, the submission package including the specification was included in the submission but was empty and did not include any data. The applicant believes that the submission was a problem with the transmission package and not the result of a failure by the applicant to include the items in the submission package.

The applicant had attempted several times during the prosecution of the application to contact the USPTO to inquire whether the application was being examined. The applicant did not receive any formal response from the USPTO. The Notice of Incomplete Non-Provisional Application was the first official correspondence from the USPTO providing a notice of missing parts.

The applicant respectfully requests the originally filing date of September 15th, 2004 be assigned for the application, a refund of the US $400 petition fee, and prompt examination of the application.
